

Barrington Police Department

100 Federal Road, Barrington, Rhode Island 02806

Telephone: (401) 437-3938 Fax: (401) 437-3939

John M. LaCross
Chief of Police

---

February 4, 2010

Press Release

Suspects Arrested in Webster Bank Holdup

On Tuesday, February 2, 2010 at approximately 4:00 pm, Webster Bank located on County Road in the town of Barrington reported a robbery which just occurred involving two young females who had just left the bank with an undetermined amount of cash. Detectives working with branch staff used Webster Bank's internal video surveillance system and located several clear pictures of the suspects' faces. These photographs were immediately sent to the media networks and were aired for the 6:00 pm news broadcasts.

Within the next 24 hours, Barrington Police received numerous tips and possible identification of the robbery suspects. Based on several tips, Barrington detectives responded to the Fall River area late Wednesday evening and met with Fall River detectives to question a suspect. As additional information was received, a new suspect was generated who was later interviewed by detectives and confessed to her involvement in the Webster Bank robbery. As a result of the investigation, the second female party turned herself into authorities on Thursday, February 4, 2010 at 8:30 AM. The below suspects have been charged with Second Degree Robbery and Conspiracy to Commit Robbery.

Johnessa A. Iavarone of 63 Bourne Road, Swansea, MA, d.o.b. 9/14/90.

Tiffany A. Albanese of 61 Division Street, Apt. 2, Fall River, MA, d.o.b. 6/14/89.

Brandon M. Chaisty, 61 Division Street, Fall River, MA, d.o.b. 12/26/89(driver of the vehicle).

"Because of the clear images captured by the bank's internal security system and the assistance of the news media, numerous calls were generated leading Detectives to the arrests of these 3 subjects within a 24 hour period."

Chief John M. LaCross